

On the Green

NOVEMBER 8, 1972
VOL. II, NO. 3

STUDENT ENROLLMENT TOTALS 1,088

Of the 1,088 preparatory, undergraduate, and graduate students enrolled at Gallaudet for the 1972-73 academic year, 980 represent 47 states, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and Guam.

The states of California (104), Maryland (75), Illinois (72), New York (68), Virginia (43), Pennsylvania (41), and North Carolina (40) are the best represented. This year Canada sent 69 students to the College, and 39 students have come from 29 different nations.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

STATISTICAL ANALYST: Office of
Demographic Studies

STATISTICAL CLERK: Office of
Demographic Studies

CUSTODIAN: Physical Plant

ELECTRONIC TECHNICIAN: Educational Technology

RESEARCH ELECTRONICS ASSISTANT:
Sensory Communication Research Lab

SECURITY PATROLMAN: Office of General Services

For further information, contact the Office of Non-Faculty Personnel.

NURSERY RHYMES FROM MOTHER GOOSE

Nursery Rhymes From Mother Goose, the third in a series of Signed English books for children, will be available in the Bookstore by Thursday of this week.

Including such favorites as Hey Diddle Diddle, Little Miss Muffet, and Pat-A-Cake, Nursery Rhymes was prepared by the Pre-School Signed English Project under the direction of Harry Bornstein.

ANYONE FOR VOLLEY BALL...

...badminton, slimnastics, floor tennis, or cracket? The Department of Physical Education has begun a new recreational program for faculty, staff, and graduate students.

The program is held every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 12 noon to 1 p.m. in the Boys Gym.

For more information, contact Marty Minter at 761.

CIVIL SERVICE DISCRIMINATION

The New York University Deafness Research and Training Center received a grant from HEW to conduct a survey of instances of state and federal Civil Service discrimination against deaf persons.

If you know of any such instances, please write to the Center at 80 Washington Square East, New York, New York 10003. All information will be held confidentially.

AROUND AND ABOUT

The National Literary Society features three international students at its meeting on Friday, November 11 at 8 p.m. in room 251 of Hall Memorial... Bernard Bragg will be autographing copies of his biography, Signs of Silence, in the Bookstore on Friday from 1-2 p.m. and Saturday from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.... During the month of October 118 people visited Kendall Green... The Association of American University Professors is holding an open meeting on Monday, November 13 at 4 p.m. in room 274 of Hall Memorial Building. Mr. Stephen Bienieck, deputy director of the Washington, D.C. Legal Aid Society, will speak about the question of legal insurance --- what it is and how it can be beneficial....The Library now has a TTY. The number is 0385.

CHOUGH NAMED TRUNDLE FELLOW

Steven K. Chough '61, a doctoral candidate in social work at Columbia University, has been named the Trundle Fellow for 1972.

The John A. Trundle, '85, Fund, which was established in 1965 as an outgrowth of the successful Centennial Fund drive, is a designated fellowship within the Graduate Fellowship Fund of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association.

OPENING THE LEGAL PROFESSION TO THE DEAF

Under a special federal grant, Wayne State University Law School is investigating the possibility of preparing qualified deaf persons for careers in the legal profession.

As part of the project, Wayne State is recruiting deaf college graduates and seniors with a least a B average to take the Law School Admission Test on December 16. All expenses including interpreters' fees will be reimbursed by Wayne State.

WE REGRET THE FOLLOWING ERROR

In last week's ON THE GREEN the information concerning the journal, Sign Language Studies, should have read: "James Woodward, Harry Bornstein, and Lillian Hamilton are among the contributors to the first issue."

"ANTIGONE" OPENS FRIDAY NIGHT

"Antigone," the fall drama production, will open Friday evening in the Auditorium. Three other performances are scheduled for November 11, 17 and 18. All are at 8 p.m.

Director, Gil Eastman, has compiled six English translations of Sophocles' tragedy into one sign language script. This year readers will not translate the signed performance into English but will speak their lines using the but will speak their lines using the syntax of American Sign Language.

GOOD NEWS FROM OUR FOOTBALL TEAM

The Bisons came through on Saturday with a 22-0 victory over Anne Arundel Community College to break Gallaudet's five game losing streak.

The team has high hopes for winning the last game of the season when they play Catholic University this Saturday. The game will be held at Catholic at 2 p.m.

GRANTS RECENTLY RECEIVED BY THE COLLEGE

--The Morris and Gwendolyn Cafritz Foundation has awarded a grant of $2,000 to our Center for Continuing Education to be used to cover interpreting expenses for this academic year.

The Cafritz Foundation makes grants to charitable, educational, and cultural institutions. Its general policy is to limit its gifts to such organizations operating in the city of Washington for the benefit of D.C. citizens.

--A gift of 50 shares of Purolator Corporation stock was donated to the David Peikoff, '29, Fellowship Fund by Mrs. William Bradshaw. The Peikoff Fund will give financial assistance to deaf doctoral candidates.

--The Eastman Kodak Company gave an unrestricted grant of $3,000 to the College in the name of Deena M. Divincenzo '62.

The Kodak Educational Aid Program provides for direct grants to the colleges and universities of its employees who have joined the company within five years following graduation and who have completed their fifth year of employment.

ON THE GREEN is published for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations. Please send us your news. Phone 396 or TTY 480.

Judy Bortner, editor

